

Dear Parents/Carers

Welcome back to the second half of the Spring term. We 'kicked off' in style with the School Pancake Races on Tuesday. These were great fun – apologies for the late notice with regard to the frying pans. I remembered that we had talked about holding them at the end of the last half term and I forgot to put it in the newsletter. As it turned out, we had plenty of assorted pans and despite the very sad, limp pancakes at the end, both the children, and (later) the birds, looked like they'd had lots of fun.

On the subject of fun, over the next two weeks, we have World Book Day (Thursday 5 March) and Comic Relief (Friday 13 March). The staff and children will be pursuing book-based activities on World Book Day and we will be supporting Comic Relief by holding a 'Pirates' Day. One piece of eight (or a pound) to take part in 'Pirates' day! Parents get in for free. The more pirate jokes, of course, the merrier!

I hope that those parents who came along for the SATs evening last Monday found it useful. I do have handouts still available if anybody would like a copy.

As a reminder we will be holding a 'Fronter' evening on Wednesday 4 March for those who are interested or want to learn more.

Best wishes

Amanda Tutt
