

What is English?

- English includes, reading, writing, spelling and grammar.

Why is English so important?

- It sparks our imagination and creativity.
- It helps us to flourish in other subjects.
- It opens doors in our futures and helps us to make change happen.
- We can succeed as learners and achieve our dreams.
- It helps us to share and value our ideas with the world.
- It allows us to communicate with others.

Which careers are linked to English?

Careers in media (journalism, TV and radio), influencing (advertising and marketing), helping others (social work or youth work), information (booksellers, librarians), teaching (schools, universities, abroad) and further study (MA, PhD, film, business)

What is the writing process (the concepts)?

Planning. Drafting. Editing. Re-drafting. Publishing.

Vocabulary. Punctuation. Grammar.

What are the different purposes of my writing that I will learn?

1. Writing to describe
2. Writing to persuade
3. Writing to inform
4. Writing to discuss