

History

What is History?

- History is a study of the past.
- You research and learn about interesting and important dates, people and events.

Why is History so important?

- History helps us to learn about how and why society has changed.
- It develops interpretation and investigation skills.

Which careers are linked to History?

Museum curator, teacher, archaeologist, palaeontologist, tour guide, lawyer, stone mason, conservationist, librarian, television presenter or broadcaster, author

What are the History core concepts that I will learn?

- Exploration
- Empire
- Invasion
- Technological change and advancement
- Cultural change

What are the History skills that I will learn?

- Chronology
- Enquiry (sequencing events and making connections)
- Using and analysing evidence (interpretations of sources and accounts)
- Presenting and communicating (vocabulary and research)