At Curry Rivel, we use the No Outsiders approach to promote inclusion, respect, and equality across our school community. This approach complements our Christian vision and values, supporting our belief that every child is uniquely valued and loved by God.

Mrs Sullivan is asking you to please send in a photo of your child doing something that is special and important to them ie football, ballet or cycling - this will contribute to our whole school display.

This week, has seen the start of guitar lessons for some of our children. Dan Helyer is coming in once a week to deliver paid teaching lessons. If your child is interested, please contact the office.

Lunchtimes have had a wonderful relaunch this week following conversations with the children about what they would like. The field is open, new equipment has been brought, the quiet zone is providing a calm space and those who enjoy playing with the basketballs have that option too.

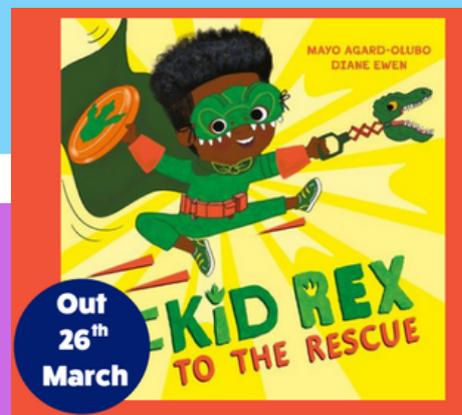

It has been great to see the children smiling and laughing and enjoying the extra space.
Have a wonderful weekend,

Mrs Sullivan
